GOODBYE & HELLO!

Leiv's graduation after 5 years at the Buzz was marked by a moving rendition of Pepeha, sung by Lily. It was a successful morning as James sold a plant to Nelson City Councillor Sarah Kerby!

We have welcomed new faces at The Buzz - Finn, Josh, Ruby, Saelyn and Taryn are either trailing the Buzz or have been accepted onto our programme. Also, welcome back to volunteer Carolyn who has returned from her travels in Europe, including Scandinavia and France.

Admin updates

Apologies to those that have received overdue invoice reminders - this is automatically generated by Xero. If in doubt, please check!

We have now set up 'Tap to Pay' on the Buzz cellphone. This means that we can sell honey/notepads or pay invoices using Paywave or by putting in your card details. At the moment there is a 2.65% surcharge to pay by this method.

Sarah (admin) will be overseas from 17th Sept to 12th October. The Buzz will be operating as usual but there may be delays in responding to administrative questions.

Te Taihū
Accessibility Expo

13th September

10am - 3pm

Trafalgar Centre, Nelson

The Te Taihū Accessibility Expo is the region's dedicated event for disabled people and their whānau.

We hope that you will be able to join us at the Expo! Miro will be there all day, but if your young person would like to be at the stall we would love to see you there.

If you are interested in helping out please email office@thebuzznelson.nz

Visit from Electoral Commission

Lizzy Coppola from the Electoral Commission will be talking to The Buzz on Friday 11th Sept at 9.30am. They are keen to support youth ahead of the election deadlines and elaborate on the basics of what an election is, why their voice is important and how they can enrol.

New Polo Shirts Ordered!

Thanks to Footprint Signs (providing printing) and IHC Nelson Association (paying shirt costs), we have new yellow "The Buzz" polo shirts for events and markets! These will be kept in a shared team pool.

Thank you to the NZ Community Trust and Nelson City Council who have recently provided funding for The Buzz. Your continued support is very much appreciated!

Thanks again to our wonderful funders, without whom we couldn't keep the Buzz up and running.
